

4) ACQUISITION OF PROPERTIES UNDER MALAYSIA MY SECOND HOME PROGRAMME

ACQUISITION OF PROPERTIES BY FOREIGN INTERESTS UNDER FOREIGN INVESTMENT COMMITTEE (FIC)'S GUIDELINE

1. Acquisition of Residential Units Under Malaysia My Second Home Programme

- a. Purchase of residential unit is exempted from FIC's approval under the Malaysia My Second Home Programme.
- b. All categories of residential units are allowed except for low-cost and medium low-cost units as determined by the state authorities, all properties built on Malay reserve land, units that are reserved for Bumiputera quota and agricultural land developed on the basis of the homestead concept
- c. State authority has the discretion to consider the acquisition based on location, no. of unit in any single project development and type of the properties
- d. Any proposed acquisition under Malaysia My Second Home Programme must be directly applied to (Ministry of Tourism).
- e. The detailed particulars of the acquisition should be notified to FIC by the Ministry.

2. Acquisition of Properties

- a. Acquisitions of properties other than residential units are subjected to FIC's approval

3. Transfer of Properties by Foreign Interests

- a. Transfer of properties by foreign interests are only allowed to their immediate family members only
 - Family members under FIC's guidelines are through marriage (husband and wife), blood ties (grandfather, grandmother, siblings, step-children and legally adopted children)
- b. Transfer of properties through Will or Court Order is exempted from FIC's approval

4. Acquisition Procedure Of Residential Unit Under Malaysia My Second Home Programme

Chart 5.1 : Procedure for Acquisition of Properties under Malaysia My Second Home Programme

- Identify the property in which the participant intends to acquire
- Buy properties that have been issued the Certificate of Fitness (CF)
- Seek information on the property from relevant authorities (land office, local authorities) including the minimum price
- Assign a lawyer and get the S & P Agreement signed
- Get a letter from Ministry of Tourism certifying that the acquirer is a participant of Malaysia My Second Home Programme

5. Disposal of Properties

- Identify interested local buyer. If foreign buyer, please seek prior approval from FIC
- Sign the S & P agreement with the interested buyer
- Notify relevant authorities (FIC, Ministry of Tourism, Inland Revenue Board) of the disposal of the property

Note : IRB – Inland Revenue Board

For further inquiries, kindly contact:

Malaysia My Second Home Centre (MM2H)

Ministry of Tourism Malaysia

Level 23, Menara Dato' Onn

Putra World Trade Centre

50695 Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Tel : +603 - 2696 3351

Fax : +603 - 2698 8533

Website : <http://mm2h.motour.gov.my>

Foreign Investment Committee (FIC)

Economic Planning Unit,

Prime Minister's Department,

Block B5 & Block B6,

Federal Government

Administrative Centre,

62502 Putrajaya

Tel : +603 - 8888 3333

Fax : +603 - 8888 3755

Website : <http://www.epu.jpm.my>